ABOUT US

This is an enormous responsibility and while we want you to have fun we want you to understand the responsibility. Not just that you are responsible for the physical, emotional and mental health of children but that we expect you are able to take care of yourself physically, emotionally and mentally so that you are your best self. That is a lot to ask for a 9-10 week commitment. Are you ready?

HIRING

- TBD

We look for staff with a desire for personal and professional development; self motivated; interest in being challenged; love of people; ability to play; organizational skills (time management, keeping area clean, etc.); ability to communicate (both oral and written) and willingness to try new things
